

PEOPLE
CHANGE
SAFETY
TRUST

Delve into the worlds of a diverse range of characters, discover what makes them tick, what upsets them, why they behave as they do.

RELATE UNDERSTAND EMPATHISE

15+ Yrs

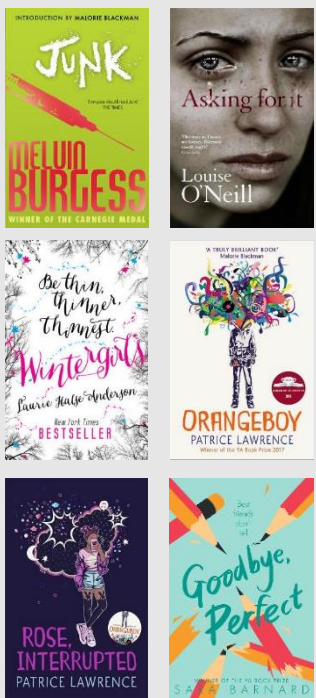

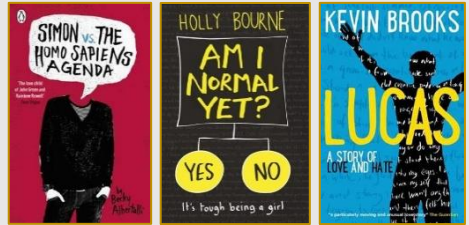

We all have different home lives; each family is diverse and unique. See how these young people face the challenges of their own home lives.

Read about the isolation of loneliness and the impact that a true and wonderful friendship can have on a life.

www.readingjackdaw.co.uk

Every day we feel pressure about who we should be, how we should act, what we should eat, what we should look like, how many likes we have. These reads discuss the different pressures teenagers might face in the modern world.

School, college and moving on can be fun but can also feel threatening, and people can be cruel. See how these young people dealt with bullies, prejudice and life in the corridors.

